STP Associates plan stalls

By David Winzelberg

Tuesday, December 4, 2007 08:28 PM EST

The new owners of a Syosset trailer park have offered tenants $500,000, to be split among them, to relocate after November, 2008.

STP Associates plans to build townhouses on the site where 59 mobile homes now sit. Some of the owners of those homes have sued STP to give them six months notice before terminating their leases.

STP Associates offered park residents one-year leases for $750 a month, but none would sign. The developer said it will allow tenants to stay on a month-to-month basis for 11 more months.
